The musical score is written for a keyboard-conductor. It consists of two staves. The top staff is a single treble clef staff in 4/4 time, with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). It contains four measures, each with a whole rest, and is numbered 1, 2, 3, and 4 above the staff. The bottom staff is a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) in 4/4 time, with the same key signature. The treble staff has four measures with whole rests, labeled 'Drs (solo)' below the first measure. The bass staff contains a continuous eighth-note accompaniment pattern: G2, F#2, E2, D2, C#2, B1, A1, G1, F#1, E1, D1, C#1, B0, A0, G0, F#0, E0, D0, C#0, B-1, A-1, G-1, F#-1, E-1, D-1, C#-1, B-2, A-2, ASH: "You did it, kid. You did it! Annie! (Realizing she's dead) Annie! Annie! No!!!!"

15 [Transitional underscoring if needed.]

(The curtain closes as the music keeps going and the lights put on a wild show. Basically, this instrumental interlude covers the time needed for the costume and set change, as the audience rocks out to a groovy guitar solo. When the set and costume changes for the next scene are ready, the music and lights stop.)
